Ray was duly sworn for the defense; was present at the meeting of the convention; was in the lobby; some resolutions were offered, and on the close of a resolution in reference to Judge Bullitt, Gen. Burbridge remarked that he had ordered the arrest of Judge Bullitt, and if eaught he would hang him; Geu. Burbridge was commandant; the room was full; I am certain as to the idea of the language Gen. B. used in reference to the last resolution; it was on the night of the meeting of the Legislature; it was a political meeting; Gen. Burbridge made some remarks on the arrest of Judge B., but I cannot well recol-

Gen. Huestou sworn for defense-Soon after Gen. B. returned from Indianapolis had a talk with him in regard to Judge Bullitt's arrest. He said it was on account of his councetion with the Sons of Liberty—a treasonable organization—and would —a treasonable organization—and would try him before a military court, and, if found guilty, would haug him quick. I do not remember if I talked with Judge B. afterwards. Heard that Judge B. was sent to Memphis and sent back by Gen. Washburne. They tried to arrest him but he went off. This is general rumor.

Hon. J. F. Bell, for defense, sworn and says: I went to Ottawa to see Judge Balls ays: I went to Ottawa to see Judge Bullitt. I heard that a portion of his friends were at Lonisville to see about the manner of his trial. I went to Lonisville to see If the trial was to occur there. I heard there that Judge Bullitt was not allowed to confer with his friends. with his frieuds. After this I heard he had been sent to Memphis. He returned and took his seat as presiding justice during December 6th and 7th. He made some remaks that by some exchange he had been allowed to return. Heremained until 24th 1864. The reason of his going away the second time I only heard from hearsay. The order of his arrest was issued on the 5th or 6th of January, and on account of the authority given out he took the way of escape offered. He has leased at farm for our year as I hear. He leased his own farm in Jefferson. He has not left the State longer than the time necessary to insure his safety from military anthorities. I understood Judge Bullitt had demanded a court marking and he had had at trial effect. martial, and he had had a trial offered by the military commission, but he refused. JUDGE BULLOCK'S STATEMENT.

On a certain day military officers called and notified him of his arrest; on demanding it he saw it was for Judge Bullitt; he was allowed to visit him in the presence of the gnard; the conversation was in regs to the private uffairs of Judge Bullitt; Mrs. Bullitt had asked a trial of Gen. Ewing; he Bullitt had asked a trial of Gen. Ewing; he answered he could give him a trial by a military commissiou; he refused; he heard he had gone to Canada; saw Judge Bullitt when he was sent to Memphis; has not seen him since; he heard Judge Bullitt had demanded a civil trial, as the report was made that he would be tried by a court martial and he would be shot the next day.

Took recess on the question till 12 M

Took recess on the question till 12 M. Mr. Sayres offered the following resolu-Resolved, That the defense take the vidence in the third charge against Judge Bullitt, and if there is not sufficient evidence to satisfy the House of the necessity of removing him from other, then the other charges will be taken up in the report of the committee and evidence taken to estab-lish said charges or to acquit Judge Bullitt. UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR STATE TREASURER,

Capt. W. L. Neale,

Of Madison County.

J. WESLEY MALONE.

The reader will be edified in the perusal of the epistle of Mr. J. Wesley Malone, in our paper of to-day. There have been against an honerable returned soldier,

L have the honer to remain. nearly as many exploring expeditions for the ultima thule of rebel insolence and effrontery as for the Northwest passage. 'Tis a pity that Webster's great Dictionary appeared prematurely. The English language sadly needs descriptive words for the deeds of rebels. Those words that fit the crimes of other meu as though they were made for one another, are altogether too diminutive for the atrocities of rebels. The attempt to cover them with the words that describe the vileness of other men is something like an attempt to cover ten acres of laud with a square yard of clotb.

The words insolent, impudent, sauciness are utterly impoverished in clothing rebel deeds. Effrontery may convey some idea of a 'gross and public exhibition of shamelessness," but the word is beggared in attempting to convey the full measure of rebel work of this kiud. We think that Mr. J. Wesley Malone is a contesting racer for the honors of sublime rebel effrontery. But before entering upou considerations of this kind, we beg leave to make an essential disclaimer. From the salutation, "My dear Sir," with which Mr. Malone addresses us, some iunocent soul may imagine that he is an acquaiutauce of ours. If any one is thus caught, we desire to undeceive him. We have not the mis-fortune of an acquaintance with this "hon-erable soldier of the Confederate States army," this "bone fide citizen of the United After a long debate the bill was finally reto undeceive him. We have not the mis-States Government." It may be a sad defect ln our experieuce that we have never met with this precious specimen of a rebel, Confederate, "gentlemen," as he spells it. The word gentleman cannot have in the very nature of things, any very precise meaning among a republican people and in the mouths of rebels its common use ruus into carricature. Yet, they may use it authoritatively, but other people should drop it. George Barriugtou, the notoribus pick-pocket, went constantly by the name of "gentleman George.

Aschan, in his "Schole Master" says: "Some lu France, which will needs be gentlemen whether men will or no, and have more gentleshippe in their hat than in their head, be at deadly feud with both learning and honesty.

aggregation of every mean, treacherous, and villainous outrage, called himself the first gentleman in Europe. Old Roger Spenser, in his view of Ireland, says of the Irish of his day:

If he can derive himself from the head of any sept, then he holdeth himself a gentle man, and thereupon scorneth to work or use any hard labor, but henceforth becom-eth either an horse-boy or a stocal to some kerne, inuring himself to his weapon, and to the gentlemanly trade of stealing, as they

Roger Aschain and the author of the Faery Queen are good authorities for the use of words, and the rebels may be permitted to appropriate the word gentleman to themselves. Honest men can do without it very well. As we have not the acquaintauce of Mr. J. Wesley Malone, we are not prepared to say anything of his a helf at this point and is still faceding. Faery Queen are good authorities for the are not prepared to say anything of his claim to having been "a gentlemen all his life." But there is one thing of which we are sure. J. Wesley Malone is not a descendant of that "Widow Malone" with whom Frank Webber decorated General Dashwood's ball, of whom the song says:

But so modest was Mrs. Majone
Twas known
No one could see her alone
Ohone.
Let them ogle or eigh
They could neer catch her eye,
So bash all this Widow Malone,
So bashful this Widow Malone.

J. Wesley will not die by an excessive stock of modesty.

This Mr. J. Wesley Malone, like hundreds of other whipped traitors, is cavorting rather extravagantly, and he and his cronies should have some sense bored into their stupid brains. He and the rest of his gang are traitors, walking here in Kentucky with a rope's end dangling about their treasonable uecks. They are creatures that are merely permitted to drag their miserable lives along for a season, whether these lives shall be judefinitely prolonged, depends, to some extent on their good behavior. They may feel the drawing of the halter speedily, if their rebel insolence becomes osteutatious. In the eyes of the Constitution of the United States, by the majesty of the laws and in the judgment of all true men and women, Mr. J. Wesley Malone, is a vile traitor, who deserves

We do not know how this respited traitor has become a "bone fide citizen of the United States Government," to use his own choice language. The Supreme Court of choice language. The Supreme Court of the United States, according to the Attorney General, has decided that Malone and in thunder tones demand and compel their company have uo home in the loyal States, and the Secretary of War has ordered the enforcement of the judgment. At best Mr.
Malone is a tolerated interloper in Kencial and social world, isolated, derided and Gloves, tucky and he may make himself intolerable. We feel some confidence that Congress has not passed a special act for J. Wesley Malone, and he should bear lu mind that the State of Kentucky rates him and his fellow Kentucky traitors as low as she does the negroes, so far as suffrage is taken against the Administration was well concerned. An apology is due, but we are not in the quandary of Davy Crockett in his affair with the baboon and the Tennessee Congressman. Davy was struck with the resemblance of the baboon to the Congressman and commenced pointing out the similitudes. While in mid volley, Davy happened to turn his head slightly and supposed to happened to turn his head slightly and saw that the Congressman was within hearing distance. Davy at once declared that an apology was due, and that if any one would satisfy him as to which of the two, the baboon or the Congressman lt was due, he would make it on the spot. We admlt

Bullitt Trial--Militia Law--An Old Acquaintance--Go Away Negro Soldier---Another Radical Caucus.

[Special Correspondence of the Union Press.]

FRANKFORT, May 29. The Bullit trail was resumed this morn ing, and the defense tried to prove that his leaving the State was occasioued by Gen. Burbridge making use of the remark, "that as he heard that Judge Bullitt was a member of a treasonable association, he would order his arrest, and if caught, hang him." This seems to be their principal. im." This seems to be their principal oint, and it is curious to note the fact, what point, and it is curious to note the fact, what an aurount of cross-examination this little phrase leads to. The case was closed this morning for both sides, as relating to the charge of having vacated his office, and a resolution was offered in the lower house to arraign him on the other charges, if he was not found guilty of the present one. The case will, without doubt, be brought up for final adjudication to-morrow, nuless the letter which was sent to the Governor arrives and gives it a new phase. In the Senate a bill which has been presented for eight years steadily, and as steadily passed over was brought up. The bill is to give relief to Geo. W. Coons, who built a bridge over some raffroad, and now desires payment. It was granted, and so ends one of the most famous cases on the records of the Commonwealth. Mr. Owens, of Shelby, introduced a series of resolutions, setting forth that as the negroes who were recruited in Kentucky were quartered in different parts of the State, and proved a sort of annoyance and irritation to their Geerge the Fourth of England, that

GEN. R. W. JOHNSON.-This gallant Kencentral to date from December 16, 1864, for "gallant and useritorions services in the battle of Nashville." Gen. Johnson is one of the best officers that Kentucky has ever furnished. Unassuming in his manner, he has not appeared before the public as often as some others, nor as often as his merits deserved. In the beginning of the rebel-lion he was commissioned Colonel of the 3d Kentucky cavalry, which regiment he disciplined and made one of the best in the service. He was promoted to Brigadier service. He was promoted to Brigadier General and made many brilliant fights in command of a brigade. In the battles around Nashville he commanded all the cavalry under General Thomas. He won bright laurels in the memorable fights around the Rock City, and was continually harrassing Hood's rear. For this valuable service he was recommended for promotion by Gen. Thomas. Never were the motion by Gen. Thomas. Never were the stars more richly deserved, nor never did they grace the shoulders of a braver man than Gen. R. W. Johnson.

THE ATLANTIC AND GREAT WESTERN RAILWAY.-Every railroad and line out of Louisville connects with the great "Broad Gange" route to New York, Boston and Eastern cities. The mailboats and the Peo-ple's Line of boats connect with the Atlanic and Great Western at Cincinnati. The Jeffersonville railroad connects by the way of Seymonr and the Ohio and Mississipp railroad. The New Albany and Chicag Railroad makes connections by the way o Mitcheli and the Ohio and Mississippi road. Passengers for the East will be much pleased with this new ronte—the wide and luxnrions cars, the splendid eat-ing houses and the few changes, (only one between Cincinnati and New York,) are comforts that all appreciate, and they will make the route very popular. This route to Pittsburg and Philadelphia, via Mansfield, where the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad crosses and connects the Atlantic and Great Western, is the shortest and quickest one from Louisville to these points, and we would recommend it to our rs. We learn that the Atlantic and Western are about to start a tast freight or express line, which will deliver goods from New York in Louisville in less time than our merchants have been accustomed to receive them. The road certainly has the facilities of doing it, and our mer-chants will gladly avail themselves of its ad vantages. CONCERT OF MISS ALICE ROXBOROUGH.

We were most agreeably entertained at the We were most agreeably entertained at the concert in the Fitth-street (colored) Baptist Church last uight. The concert consisted of selections from the most popular authors, and was highly appreciated. We feel compelled to award the palm to the singing of Miss Julia Britton. Her rendition of "We Met by Chance," and "Mumuring Sea," was truly excellent. Miss Alice Roxborough, who is a charming lyric agtress was ough, who is a charming lyric actress, was greeted with the warmest applanse, and sang with a warmth and enthusiasm that sang with a warmth and enthusiasm that was really charming. Her singing in, "I'll pray for line," was equal to anything we have ever heard. She also sang very finely Vose's Gondollied, Mrs. Britton sang "Brave men behold your falleu Chief' with much pathos. The instrumental music was very fine indeed. Mr. John Morris was a valuable auxilliary in this line. Miss Conrad Smith and Miss Laura Johnson were considered. couspienous in carrying out the charming

Mr. Campbell disclaimed any intention on the part of the conusel to reflect upon the court. The only object was to impeach the testimony of a witness. the testimony of a witness.

The court voted not to put the paper on record, but was perfectly willing, as was expressed the other day by the counsel for the accused, should call witnesses to im-

the accused, should call witnesses to impeach Von Steneke's testimony.

Mr. Alken said they had Gen. Edward Johnson, late of the rebel army, and members of his staff, to prove that uo such meeting as Von Steneke represented took place in the camp of the 2d Vigluia regiment, at which Booth was said to be present, having for its object the assassination of President Lincoln. Witnesses were overshed by the present of the desired the staff of the Lincoln. Witnesses were examined by defense to impeach those who testified against Dr. Mndd.

The prosecution called Mr. Hyatts, who testified to meeting Dr. Blackburn at Toronto in December, 1862, and knew that Toronto in December, 1862, and knew that he was in the service of the rebels; that Blackburn took witness to a private room and asked him if he was willing to go on an expedition. He told him he would make $100,000, and receive more glory than Lee. Witness consented, and received a letter from Blackburn dated 10th of May least at Hayana, stating that he would are last at Havana, stating that he would arrive at Halifax, and witness made his way there and perfected arrangements for the distribution of the infected clothing, and bringing tranks to New York and Philadelphia. Blackburn stated that his object was to destroy the Federal Army; that the clothing has been infected with yellow tover, and that other parties were engaged with him in infecting goods amounting to a million dollars worth with that disease and the small-pox. Witness understood that the clothing in the valise which was sent to President Lincoln was Infected with diseases. When witness returned to Hamilton he met Clay and Halcombe, who congratulated him on his success, and tele-graphed to Dlackburn, who came down next night, and when witness told him what he had done, he said it was all right, as bag No. 2 hod gone to Washington, and he was sure it would kill at 60 p Blackburn said Thompson would pas and he went to Thompson, who stated that he would be paid when they they head that the goods had been delivere according to instructions. Gardner, and third time also to Washington, as whim every day except to Washington, saw him every day except. o Washington; saw hlm every day except those three; never saw Smratt or Booth; never heard Surratt's, Booth's or Harrold's names mentioned in the family; witness went for Mudd ou the 15th of April, to his (Mudd's) father; told him there were some soldiers at the house who wanted to see hlu; nothing was said about Booth; never heard Mudd express any disloyalty; saw two horses at the houses; didu't see men, but heard one had broken his leg.

Julian Bloss, (colored) formerly residing at Mudd's testified: Never knew of any Confederate officers or soldlers being about the honse; never saw Surratt, Andrew Gwynn or Ben Gwynn at the honse, or heard their names mentloned; Mudd was very kind to all of his slaves. He never struck Mary Simms that I know of. Mary Simms la not agreat truth teller, because she has told lies on use. The colored folks generally think hera liar. The same was the case of Milor Simms. If he got angry with you he would tell a lie on you for the sake of satisfaction. Never heard Dr. Mudd talk about the Government or Mr. Lincoln. I left his house two days before last Christmas. Mudd's wife told me that day he was going to Washlucton to have a store

Earl Russell addressed letters to the heads of the various departments, dated May 11th, stating that in the existing state of civil war in America and the uncerta as to its continuance, it appears to Her Majesty's Government that the time has arrived for ceasing to enforce so much of or orders given in the letter of Junuary 31st, 1862, requiring belligerent vessels to leave British ports within 24 hours, and restricting supplies to actual requirements.

The various custom collectors of all ports had been notified of these modifications. The Times, of the 18th, in its city article ays: Some disappointment was also felt at the tone of the prochunation of President Johnson pronouncing Jeff. Davis and other Americans to have been accomplices in the recent murder; a charge which, without such proof us has rarely been accomplicated in any case will not be entercommulated in any case, will not be enter-tained for an instaut by any who show, as all Englishmen do, the conviction of Se-ward and the late President Lincoln, that assassination is a crime repugnant to the American character. The Daily Telegraph says, not many days ago we expressed the belief that President Johnson would have chosen between the policy of Butler and the policy of Grant; already the choice has been made, and it is to our thinking disastrous and in sensate. The Star says, the most exaggerated reports have been in circulation, as the policy of the United States towards Great Britain, Canada, France and Mexico. It would be only just to take the policy of the United States Government from itself, or from its acknowledged organs, but it has suited the purpose of the interested operators to accept instead of, wild representations of newspapers that are nnrecoguized and disavowed The Central Committee of the Society of Friends in England had issued a renewed call under the present aspect of affairs in America for increased contributions in nid

Appeal for Relief.

To the Ministers and Congregations of Religious Worship in Mentucky.

FRIENDS OF HUMANITY: The dreadful FRIENDS OF HUMANITY: The dreadful scourge of war having multiplied thousands of victims of suffering and want, we are impelled in their behalf to solicit means for their relief. The managers of the Kentucky branch, have long since vigilantly and successfully labored to this end. They have ministered to the sick and wounded on the field and in the hospital; kept in good order a home for passing soldiers in the city of Lonisville; they have founded and sustained a comfortable Engineer More and sustrined a comfortable Refugee Home where thousands of women and children, sent back from the war districts homely helpless and moneyless, and temporarily fed till homes can be secured.

These burthens have been cheerfully borne, and the sufferers relieved with no extensive assistance from the people of our State beyond our immediate vicinity. We therefore the more earnestly appeal to each minister and through them and their address to every congregation und individual in the State to contribute funds and forward the same by mail or express to Mr. Arthur Peter, our treasurer, at Louisville. They will be thankfully received, duly receipted for, faithfully applied and fully reported in the city papers and Sanitary Reporter. Will not every minister and congregation forward a response to this call? Kentuckians, you who have been proverbial for your hospitality, shall the wasted and emailated forms of your sick soldiers, and the nuclesinister and through them and their ad forms of your sick soldiers, and the unclosed wounds of your suffering brave remain, after war ceased unprovided for? Shall the victims of war, women and children, wldows and orphans, calling for morsels of bread, go tamishing in our unidst while so many have enough and to spare, and permany have enough and to spare, and permany have enough and to spare, and permany have enough and to spare. bread, go tamishing in our undst while so many have enough and to spare, and perhaps fare sumtuonsly every day; snre not, you can and will prevent it. Is it not appropriate on the day of our national humiliation and prayer to connect therewith our deeds of charity for the suffering, and thus attest our sincerity.

Will every minister read this appeal to his congregation, theu from Mathew 25th chapter, 34th verse to the close, and receive their coutribution?

[Special to the Journal.] Washington, May 29.—A gentleman who returned yesterday from a tonr through Central and Southwestern Virginia gives a discouraging account of the seutiments of discouraging account of the seutiments of the people in that region.

The question universally asked was, "So you have freed the niggars, what will you do with them?" and the planters, almost universally, avowed their determination not to hire their former slaves, but to get along with what white labor they could import. One only seemed inclined to adopt himself to circumstances, saving that he himself to circumstances, saying that he had made a contract to give his negroes a portion of the crops they raised, and they had all gone industriously to work.

A large number of Sherman's officers were paid off yesterday. They received from $500 to $25,000. Many have not drawn a cent since the war began, generously risk-ing their pay until the success of the Government was beyond a doubt.

Geu. Logan will send an officer in a day or so, probably John H. Hover, of his personal staff, to select grounds in the vicinity of Louisville, Ky., for the occupation of the Army of the Tennessee. It is not probable that the Army of the Tennessee will be paid before it reaches Louisville.

from New Orleans at an early hour yester-day, with a heavy cargo, including eight hundred and seventy-one bales of cotton for reshipment to Ciucinnati.
The Carter has made a highly successful trip to New Orleans and back again to this port, having carried on the round trip up-wards of 1,900 tons and 600 passengers. To Mr. J. A. Tatum, the clerk, we are indebted for files of the latest New Orleans papers. The W. R. Carter returns to New Orleans to-morrow (Wednesday) evening at four o'clock, from the upper wharf.

THE INDIANA.-We learn that this fine steamer will be in port early on Thursday, and will immediately load for a return trip to New Orleans. Capt. Neal is well and the leaders. Great excitement prevails and favorably known as a careful, prudent boatman.

The Windsor came in from Pomeroy yes terday with a heavy tow, including 9,000 barrels of salt.

THE RUTH.—This great steamer, the pride of the West, leaves New Orleans to-day for this port, and will return to New Orleans on Wednesday, the 7th of June. Passengers and shippers will bear this in mind and make ready their shipments, as Capt. Pegram departs punctually at the time advertised.

The Arizona is due from Calro, on Gov-ernment account; and we learn that the Jewess at Cincinnati has been taken into Government service.

SYMPTOMS. The Symtoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Per-us find they have a cold, then they have frequent atacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of tempera-nro. In this condition, the n-se may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward thick and adhesive reased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The se-cretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is essened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrhis ing of a thick or slimy muceus, which has failen from: be head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the innes, and should leso no time in arresting it. The above are but few of the many Catarrhal sympton Vrite for our pamphlet describing fully all symptoms; it hat the person is obliged to cler his throat In the morn-
